Triunfo Maria Crackers

The Triunfo Maria Crackers are a Portuguese favorite. These light, crisp crackers are a delicious snack and the perfect base for enjoying cheeses, jams, spreads, meats, and dips. Try not to eat the whole package in one sitting!

Macarico Piri-Piri Sauce (Hot Sauce)

The Macarico Piri-Piri Sauce is a wonderful hot sauce that adds a nice depth of flavor to any number of dishes. We recommend using the Piri-Piri Sauce in marinades, especially for roast chicken and pork. It's also great topping for chicken wings, egg dishes, or anything you want to add a little heat to. Piri-Piri is the name used in the Portuguese language to describe the African bird's-eye chili and it offers a deliciously distinctive Portuguese flavor.

Atum Bom Petisco (Canned Tuna)

Portugal is known for its high quality fresh fish, so it's no wonder that the country's canned fish is considered gourmet. The Atum Bom Petisco is a personal size tin of tuna in oil, and is an excellent choice for snacking with crackers, adding to a salad or pasta, or even just enjoying on its own. Many agree that Portugal's canned tuna is among the tastiest in the world. Plus, not only is Atum Bom Petisco delicious, it's also quite healthy for you. Tuna is a great source of Omega 3 fatty acids, high in protein, and loaded with vitamins and minerals.

Mel de Portugal Honey

Beekeeping in Portugal is an ancient tradition that dates back to Roman times. Today, many of the beekeepers in Portugal follow inherited family traditions that have been in place for many generations. The Mel de Portugal honey reflects the wildness of the Portuguese landscapes with wild lavender, eucalyptus, thyme, orange blossom and carob - all of which contribute to the sweet, balanced flavors in the finished product. Use the Mel de Portugal honey in teas or drizzled over cheeses and crackers. This is a great honey for anyone with a sweet tooth!
