Collier Falls Vineyards 2007 Primitivo (Zinfandel) 93 POINTS!

Highest Rated Primitivo ever reviewed by Connoisseurs' Guide
Less than 200 Cases Produced.

On rare occasions, while searching for exceptional wines to feature in one of our upper-level wine club series, we discover a no-brainer, must-have-wine that deserves extra special attention. Typically, these discoveries are off-the-charts delicious, offered at an incredible value, and with such limited production there just isn't enough to go around! Special Feature wines don't come along very often, but when they do, we assure you it's an opportunity you won't want to miss.

Our Special Feature this time comes from tiny Collier Falls Winery and Vineyard. The property lies among the beautiful rolling hills of Sonoma's Dry Creek Valley on a 100-acre hillside property with a dramatic, sixty-foot waterfall. This idyllic site has been home to Collier Falls since Barry and Susan Collier purchased the land in 1997. Leaving behind the fast-paced lifestyle of running a Los Angeles entertainment production company, the Colliers found their calling and dream home in the friendly, peaceful surroundings of Dry Creek Valley. After their first vintage of Zinfandel earned 90 points from Wine Spectator magazine in 1999, the Colliers knew they were on the right path. With winemaking guidance from Marco DiGulio, their direction remains solidly on course with this exemplary bottling of the Primitivo grape.

ACCOLADES & TASTING NOTES

93 Points! Most consider Primitivo and the more widely known Zinfandel to be one and the same, much like Syrah and Shiraz. However, it took modern day DNA testing to determine there was actually a slight genetic difference. Grape growers have learned since that just 10% of California's vineyards can claim to possess Primitivo vines.

The beautiful 2007 Collier Falls Primitivo sets a new benchmark for others to emulate - "...nicely defined, ripe-berry fruit in the nose, and the wine's substantial like-minded flavors stay fully in step. There is a distinct family kinship with its winery mates in that this is a somewhat bigger and fairly mouthfilling wine, but its turn of spice brings it a face of its own and lends a singular note of complexity."

If you're a fan of hearty, red Zinfandels you'll love this unique wine. Try it with a nice and spicy pasta dish or with something more exotic like Mediterranean cuisine. Aged 16 months in oak. 100% Primitivo. Enjoy now until 2015. Extremely Limited quantity for sale. Order now to secure your order!
