Edward Sellers Vineyards & Wines

2005 Syrah Sélectionné

Paso Robles

875 Cases Produced

Named on the list of Wine Spectator's Top 10 Emerging Producers of Rhône Wines, Edward Sellers is an artisan Paso Robles winery specializing in old-world Rhône-style wines with a distinctive California fruit twist. The namesake owner, Edward Sellers, and his wife Dani had discovered the booming farm community of Paso Robles in 2003 and instantly fell in love – plus, as Rhône varietal enthusiasts, the couple was particularly inspired when they learned that the growing conditions of the area closely resembled those of southeastern France. They purchased land in the Templeton Gap corridor and Edward Sellers Vineyards and Wines was launched less than a year later in 2004. A passionate entrepreneur, sailor, and pilot, Sellers relished in the idea of setting a new course and launching a winery in a region that was just coming into its own as a producer of premium wines. The couple is joined by winemaker Amy Butler, a UC Davis grad who learned and refined her craft at such places as Stag's Leap Wine Cellars and Schramsberg in Napa Valley, and Summerwood and Peachy Canyon once she moved to Paso Robles. Her delicate expressions of the Rhône fruit result in elegant, supple wines that round out Edward Sellers Vineyards & Wines' celebrated portfolio.

ACCOLADES & TASTING NOTES

The Edward Sellers 2005 Syrah Sélectionné is a wine produced from some of the finest vineyards on Paso Robles' famed Westside in the Templeton Gap. To produce the Syrah Sélectionné, the Edward Sellers team selected the very best barrels from six different vineyard lots, blending them to showcase the finer points of each vineyard. The resulting Syrah is intensely concentrated yet elegant, with remarkable balance and a long, firm finish. A multi-award winning vintage, the 2005 Syrah Sélectionné was awarded a Double Gold Medal at the Monterey Wine Competition, a Gold Medal at the San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition, a Gold Medal at the Los Angeles International Wine Competition, and a Gold Medal at the Dallas Morning News Wine Competition. The Edward Sellers Syrah Sélectionné truly embodies the best of Paso Robles Syrah...bursting with jam-like fruit, the nose is reminiscent of perfectly ripened red currant and blackberry balanced by a rich, woody quality. Soft yet well-structured on the palate, this wine can easily be enjoyed upon release, but will stand up to cellar aging for at least another decade. 100% Syrah. Enjoy now until 2015.
