Odette Estate

2012 Cabernet Sauvignon Stags Leap District, Napa Valley

Founded by the same world-class team that brought the industry PlumpJack Winery and Cade Estate Winery, Odette Estate was established in 2012 in the Stags Leap District of Napa Valley. Odette Estate is one of the newest additions to this beloved region and looks to serve as a “breath of fresh air” to the historic District.

It all started in 1995 when the successful PlumpJack Winery was founded in Oakville. Its fruit originated from the surrounding Napa Valley floor and PlumpJack’s wines won many admirers with its high quality wines. Its owners were Gavin Newsom (then, the Major of San Francisco and now, the current Lieutenant Governor of California) and philanthropist Gordon Getty. A third partner, John Conover, joined the team in 2004 and has since become the managing partner for the entity. In 2005, they established Cade Estate Winery on Howell Mountain in an effort to craft wines with a unique terrior to PlumpJack. Keeping with PlumpJack’s esteemed reputation, the first vintage from Cade garnered a 95+ from Robert Parker.

Fast forward to 2012 when the partners were ready to add a third property to the family of wineries and established Odette Estate on a 45-acre site in the prestigious Stags Leap District. The property, planted to primarily Cabernet Sauvignon, is meticulously and organically farmed and includes a state-of-the-art, Gold LEED Certified Winery (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design). The winery itself was named after Odette, a fabled princess, mistress, and judge who appears throughout history in tales and works of fiction, including the literary works of Shakespeare. The character perfectly captures the vision for this pristine, modern winery property with her femininity, strength, and power.

Odette wines are made by a longtime member of the PlumpJack family, Jeff Owens. Beginning as a cellar worker for PlumpJack in 2006, he quickly rose through the ranks as enologist and assistant winemaker, becoming assistant winemaker for Cade Estate in 2010. In 2012, Jeff was named head winemaker for Odette Estate. Despite the learning curve set by the new property, the 2012 vintage was a blockbuster debut for Jeff and Odette, earning a perfect 100 Points from Robert Parker. Now in its fourth year, Odette Estate continues to raise the bar every year with luxury Cabernet Sauvignons that are rivaled by few in the Valley.

The Odette Estate 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon is a phenomenal showcase from Stags Leap District, boasting voluptuous, silky-soft tannins and just the right touch of acidity. The aromas and flavors mirror each other with notes of black cherries, raspberries, black currant, sweet spice, and anise beautifully mingling together. Aged 10 months in oak, 75% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Merlot, 11% Cabernet Franc. Enjoy now until 2022.
