What's a Special Feature?

While searching for exceptional wines to feature in our six wine club series, every so often we discover a no-brainer, must-have-wine that deserves extra special attention. Typically, these discoveries are off-the-charts delicious and with such limited production there just isn't enough to go around. Special Feature wines don't come along very often, but when they do, we assure you it's an opportunity you won't want to miss.

Lewis Cellars

Former Indy Car driver Randy Lewis and his wife Debbie started Lewis Cellars in 1992. They are truly "Driven... to create world-class wines." They thrive on the challenges and the relationships cultivated in the process. It is their continuing goal to create small lots of exciting and unique wines. In 2003, Lewis Cellars moved into a new winery location on Big Ranch Road, just outside the City of Napa's northern boundary. The move was another masterstroke for the small entity that is now spoken of in the rarefied air of Napa Valley's celebrity wineries. Four years ago, winemaker Josh Widaman (formerly of Pahlmeyer) was put in control of the winery's production, a move that Randy Lewis feels has cemented the quality aspects of his family-owned winery.

"A silky entry is just the beginning of this elegant, rich and densely flavored effort. The tannins make their presence felt on the finish amid a wave of dark berry and spicy oak. Drink now through 2028."
