Vines on the Marycrest
 2007 'My Generation' Red Blend
 Paso Robles
Just 350 Cases Produced!

Vines on the Marycrest is a family-owned boutique winery and vineyard perched in northwestern Paso Robles on California's famed Central Coast. Owners Victor and Jennifer Abascal established their tiny winery in 2005 with a focus on crafting Zinfandel and Rhone-style blends, capturing the vigorous spirit of the Paso Robles appellation. The couple runs the winery operation completely on their own and annually produces somewhere between 1,400 and 1,500 cases, making Vines on the Marycrest one of the smallest wineries in the region. An engineer by trade, Victor Abascal was first bit by the wine bug in 2000 when he decided to experiment with home winemaking in his free time. The experience was so exhilarating that he started growing grapes in southern California, just outside of Los Angeles, to teach himself the do's and don'ts of farming and winemaking. This location where he planted the grapes, the Marycrest Manor in Culver City, is where the name Vines on the Marycrest would stem from. When he and Jennifer stumbled upon Paso Robles a few years later, they immediately fell in love with the possibilities and found a 26-acre piece of land with their name on it. Today Vines on the Marycrest has established itself as an award-winning winery, modest in size and with so much passion and character, that the story and family immediately capture your heart. Enjoy!

ACCOLADES & TASTING NOTES

Named after rock and jazz songs to compliment the Abascals' shared love of music, Vines on the Marycrest has a unique lineup of blends and single varietal wines with fun and memorable names. The winery's 2007 'My Generation' Red Blend is named after the classic song by The Who and blends Old Vine Zinfandel with a mix of Rhone varietals (Syrah, Mourvedre, and Petite Sirah) to create a delicious and food friendly wine. An excellent vintage for Paso Robles, this wine shows tremendous intensity, excellent freshness, and lush fruit flavors. Its dark berry aromas are followed with rich coffee and dark fruits on the palate with a long, smooth finish. Vines on the Marycrest's 2007 'My Generation' was awarded a Gold Medal at the San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition and a Gold Medal at the Dallas Morning News Wine Competition. Always one of the popular selections at the winery, 'My Generation' is a real winner! 58% Zinfandel, 21% Syrah, 14% Mourvedre, 7% Petite Sirah. Aged 15 months in oak. Enjoy now until 2017.
