Scott Harvey Wines | 2015 'Vineyard 1869' Zinfandel Amador County

Vineyard 1869 is a special bottling produced by Scott Harvey Wines with fruit from the Harvey Vineyard, America's oldest documented Zinfandel vineyard with grapes dating 147 years old. The wine is made in the 'Old World' California Claret style, reminiscent of the balanced Zinfandels produced back in the 1960's and 1970's with distinctive complexity and First Growth quality. It is a rarity to have access to these incredible old vines that continue to thrive in Amador County, an AVA within the Sierra Mountains region and now recognized as a world-class wine growing appellation.

The owner and winemaker behind 1869 Vineyard is Scott Harvey, who founded his namesake winery back in 2003. Today, his career and accomplishments rank high on the scale with other modern wine industry pioneers.

Scott Harvey's road to winemaking success began as a high school exchange student in the Rhineland Pfalz wine region of Germany where he was exposed to a number of top German wineries. After college, he returned to Germany to further his studies and eventually moved back to his hometown in Amador County to become winemaker for Story Winery and Renwood Winery. His work in Amador County helped establish the region as one of the top wine growing and wine producing regions in California, and in 1990, Dan Berger, the well-respected wine writer for the Los Angeles Times, named Scott Harvey one of the 'Ten Best Winemakers in America.' Scott went on to become a partner in the successful Folie a Deux Winery in Napa Valley, and he honed his craft there for a number of years. When he learned that the entity would be sold to the Trinchero Family of Sutter Home Winery fame, he jumped at the chance to finally start his own namesake winery.

Scott Harvey began with the intention of producing a number of small-lot wines from top vineyards in the Sierra Foothills region. These were grape sources that Scott knew to be among the best in that part of Northern California. In 2004, Scott Harvey Wines made its inaugural release of almost 2,000 cases and the new winery was quickly on its way to gaining major critical acclaim. His distinctive portfolio focuses on his roots - Zinfandel, Syrah and Barbera that are approachable, food friendly, and full of luscious fruit flavors. Scott's wines have earned a remarkable number of awards and ratings since the winery's inception some fifteen years ago, and that number only continues to grow. We are proud to offer this fine selection to our Platinum Plus! Wine Club members. Cheers!
